

Ronald Reshefsky

Mr. Reshefsky presently serves as the Chairman of Century Risk Advisors (Century Advisory Services, Inc. d/b/a), a position he has held since January, 2013. He is also a Director of Besso Holdings, a Lloyd's of London Broker. Prior to his current activities, Ron had been the Chairman of XN Holdings, a provider of insurance products to the worldwide expatriate community.

Ron's earliest insurance training was that as a Miami-based Travelers Insurance Company underwriter beginning in 1972. He has been a licensed insurance agent since 1975, when he left Travelers to join global insurance broker Johnson & Higgins (acquired by Marsh & McLennan), where until 1983 he was an Account Executive and Commercial Accounts Manager. In May of 1983 Ron formed Century Financial Services (CFS), which became the largest independent insurance agency in Palm Beach County while he was its President and CEO. Summit Global Partners, a national broker, acquired CFS in 1997, with Ron remaining as Chairman and Business Executive, and that firm was subsequently acquired by USI Insurance Services in 2004. Ron departed from USI in 2008, later joining MDW Insurance Group as a Director from 2010 to 2012.

From 2002 until 2011, when the firm was acquired by the Henner Group, Mr. Reshefsky was also involved in the development and growth of specialty insurance broker XN Holdings, as noted above.

Ron is an enthusiastic supporter of the University of Miami, from which he received a Bachelor of Arts degree. He also served on the Board of Boca Raton First National Bank from 1986 to 1995, as a Director and as Chairman.

Ron has long been active in his local community. Among these activities are:

- Jewish Family Services – Director
- Jewish Federation of South Palm Beach County – Director
- Temple Beth El of Boca Raton – Director and Officer
- State of Israel Bonds – Chairman, Palm Beach County
- Boca Grove Country Club – Treasurer
- University of Miami Citizens' Board
